Amazing Acrostic Poems

Acrostics are fun poems that anyone can write. They don't need to rhyme and you don't need to worry about the rhythm of each line. Each line can be as long or short as you like - even just one word.

An acrostic is a poem where the first letter of each line spells out a word. Take a look at our example.

How to write your own acrostic poem

- First decide on the word you will spell out.
- Then brainstorm any words or phrases that describe that word or connect to it.
- Start filling in lines of your acrostic Hint: you don't have to complete it in order - start with the letters you find easiest and then fill in the blanks
- How about writing an acrostic about one of the planets?
